Re: Benjamin Zuckerman - Air Force
LGE

NY File 101-10594

On 2/1/1953 Max Clitcher (T-1) was interviewed concerning any association of BEN ZUCKERMAN with Henry Jacob. Clitcher said their relationship dated back to the latter part of 1938 and early 1939. About November 1938 Clitcher went to Wash. D.C. to work for the Bureau of Ordnance Navy Department. At that time he took up residence at 1316 Delafield Place Wash. D.C. with a group of young engineers from CCNY who were also employed at the Navy Dept. Among these engineers were Ben Zuckerman and William Danziger. Clitcher said one of these engineers knew Jacob and brought him to the house and introduced him to everyone. From that time on until about April 1939, Jacob used to drop over to the house, <sup>although he did not live there</sup> he also, according to the informant worked in the Navy Dept. Clitcher recalled that the group used to have lunch together occasionally at the Navy Department.

In April 1939 the group gave up the Delafield Place residence. Clitcher and Sobell moved into their own apartment. Zuckerman secured a room or an apartment alone in Virginia. He did not know where Jacob lived at that time. Some time on up until September 1941 Clitcher did not know what relationship if any existed between Jacob and Zuckerman.

In 1940 and 1941 Sobell dated Esther Gershon (occasionally he wanted to marry Sobell but he did not want to marry her. He introduced her to Henry Jasik. In September 1941 Sobell left Wash. D.C. to go to Michigan to continue his studies. Shortly after, Zukerman left Wash. D.C. and Jasik married Esther Gershon. From that time to the present Clitcher knew of no association between Zukerman and Jasik.

He learned every so often from Sobell, where Jasik was located, what he was working on, etc., indicating that Sobell had some contact with him. He could not recall Sobell giving him similar information about Zukerman. He could not recall that Sobell ever mentioned any association existing between Jasik and Zukerman, between 1942 and 1950.

Clitcher recalled that in the Spring of 1949 while living in Flushing, Jasik and his wife visited the Sobells. Clitcher spoke to the Jasiks at the time.

He recalled that in 1949 or 1950 Sobell told him he was at a Signal Corp. Laboratory in Monmouth New Jersey and ran into Zukerman who was working there. Clitcher believed the meeting was accidental, and that Sobell did not know Zukerman was employed there.

Clitcher said that his impression was that Zukerman must have had contact with Jasik after 1942 in order to list his name as a reference in 1945, since they had no relationship from 1938 to 1942.

said well enough on the basis of their 1939-1941 relationship to list him as a reference ~~was such a close one~~

~~cc-65-16165~~

Helene Clitcher was also contacted on the same date but had no recollection of ever meeting Jacob. She said she met Ben Zuckerman once and <sup>also</sup> spoke to him once on the telephone. She knew of no association between them.
